Re: General Motors Corp., et al. Case No. 09-50026 (REG)

The Honorable Robert E. Gerber, United States Bankruptcy Judge:

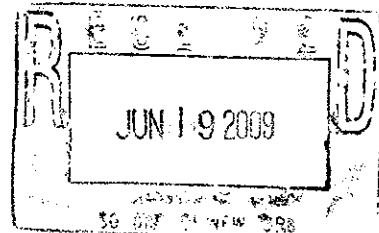

In response to a notice I received to wit, "NOTICE OF SALE HEARING TO SELL SUBSTANTIALLY ALL OF DEBTORS' ASSETS PURSUANT TO MASTER SALE AND PURCHASE AGREEMENT WITH VEHICLE ACQUISITION HOLDINGS LLC, A U.S. TREASURY-SPONSORED PURCHASER", I hereby object to this motion for sale as it will transfer assets that should be used to satisfy bondholders claims not presently or in any way adequately addressed by any proposal yet offered for consideration by the aforementioned bondholders.

I am presently the holder of $10,000, face value, General Motors Global Notes (CUSIP 37044BS3), held in my IRA with Wells Fargo Advisers.

It is my sincere desire to object to any proposal to resolve the subject bankruptcy that places bondholders behind or at par with unsecured interests such as labor unions. I know my position in this matter may seem small in the grander scheme of things, but I can assure you my holdings here are significant to me and I feel I must fight for what I believe to be right. I wholeheartedly believe the presently proposed resolution to the subject bankruptcy shortchanges bondholders in favor of parties that have and will further erode the value of my investment.

Respectfully,

John E. Green III
